f. INFORMATIONAL ITEM: The Nautical Yearbook (H. Alatorre/B. Banuelos)

  i. H. Alatorre shared with the Board that the Nautical Yearbook over the last couple of years has had challenges with sales and this year the greater challenge is that the ASI has not been able to identify a student who is interested in serving as the editor-in-chief. Additionally, advisor, Bethany Banuelos has compiled information and details pertaining to the Nautical and its history that will be shared with the Board at the next Board meeting. The hopes of bringing this information to the Board is to engage in a discussion and what discuss what should possibly happen to this entry and what does this mean since students are not showing interest in being a part of the entity or buy yearbooks themselves. In addition, this entity has a budget allocated to it, so those funds are available and there will need to be consideration on how to be best stewards of those funds, depending on the outcome.

  ii. B. Banuelos added that the budget allocation is $42,440, which covers the operations of the Nautical as well as two contractual services, which were intended for student employment.

    1. Questions/Comments:

       a. T. DeBoni: Do other CSU’s have a yearbook?
