   c. Student Union (B. Banuelos)

      i. Staffing updates:

         1. Moving forward on training the student service team on AV services and updating manuals in the process.
         2. Working with Maggie Tougas to do building and emergency training for our ASI staff, because we are unique and run our own facility, so all professional staff will receive this training.
         3. Preparing to go to the ACUI Conference in November which is at CSU Dominguez Hills this year.

      ii. In the facility:

         1. Continuing collaborations with the MDC on heritage months.
         2. Continuing the work in the courtyard to provide more space and updating the AV in the building.
         3. Water fountain on the second floor is being switched over to a filtered water refill station.

      iii. A campus partner reserved the patio for the first time, and it worked really well for that intimate event as a meet-n-greet.

      iv. Seeing a steady increase in the patron counts in the building and a significant increase in reservation requests of our spaces.

      v. Continuing work with Russell Winans to create better systems for the work with the Student Organizations.

      iii. Broadcasting section went to the Aquarium of the Pacific to learn more and promote the DDP program.

      iv. Selected 6 students to attend the Fall 2022 National College Media Convention at the end of October in Washington D.C.

      v. Intern application is now open. We have three interns currently and are looking for more.

      vi. Member and contributor base is the largest it has been in a few years.

      vii. Sent two students to Dodger Day to cover the event as well.
e. Associated Students Inc.: (H. Alatorre)
   i. Student Organizations and Involvement, with Russell Winans is supporting clubs with reregistering and assisting them begin the year with their meetings and planning. The area also coordinates CISync efforts.
   ii. Breanna Garcia has been working on assisting student organizations with getting their budget allocations and assisting them getting their accounts setup and begin purchases.
   iii. Recently received information about voter practices of our student body, 2014-2020 saw an increase in both registering to vote and an increase in voting. Can say we can contribute some of this to the work done by ASI and Student Government.
   iv. New Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Eboni Ford-Turnbow.
